Logistics Specialists Submarines manage inventories of repair parts/general supplies and distribute mail for ships, squadrons, and shore-based activities. They procure, receive, store and issue material and repair components. They utilize financial accounting and database systems to perform inventory and financial management functions. Additionally, they sort and distribute all official and personal mail, manage money order and stamp inventories, and maintain financial and inventory reports.

WHAT THEY DO
- Managing and operating Navy post offices, ashore or afloat;
- Maintaining financial records and accounting systems;
- Maintaining inventory databases for material stocked in shore based warehouses and ship storerooms;
- Perform duties associated with hazardous material control and management;
- Organizing and maintaining databases, correspondence files, and reports;
- Maintaining logistics and financial publications and CD-ROM libraries;
- Directing the routing and transportation of mail;
- Performing counter operations similar to those performed in United States Postal Service offices, such as selling stamps, handling money orders, preparing claims, tracers and inquiries;
- Prepare and maintain postal records and reports;
- Requisitioning, controlling, and maintaining postal supplies and equipment;
- Maintaining security for registered, certified and other special classes of mail;
- Maintaining inventory databases for material stocked in shore based warehouses and submarine storerooms.

CAREER PATH AFTER RECRUIT TRAINING
Enlistees are taught the fundamentals of this rating through on-the-job training or formal Navy schooling. Advanced technical and operational training is available in this rating during later stages of career development.

After "A" school and Basic Enlisted Submarine School, Logistics Specialists Submarines are assigned to serve on all types of submarines and at shore facilities in the United States and overseas. During a 20-year period in the Navy, LSSs spend about 60 percent of their time assigned to fleet units and 40 percent to shore stations.

Note: All applicants must read and understand the Submarine Volunteer Statement of Understanding.

WORKING ENVIRONMENT
Logistics Specialists Submarines work in offices, shorebased warehouses and in storerooms aboard submarines. While they work closely with other people, their tasks usually require independent decisions. The diverse working locations associated with this rating provide an excellent opportunity for learning a wide range of inventory database management, financial management, procurement, and warehouse management skills. The work is both mentally and physically challenging. The wide range of jobs and locations allows people to learn valuable customer service skills.

OPPORTUNITIES
Over 450 men and women currently work as LSSs in the Navy. Opportunities are excellent for qualified candidates.

ELITE PROGRAM
This rating is open to those who volunteer for submarine duty. Submarine pay is paid monthly upon the completion of Basic Enlisted Submarine School, currently $75.00 to $600.00 (see Submarine Pay chart). All submarine ratings are members of an elite community consisting of highly professional, well-trained personnel.
LSS - Logistics Specialist Submarines
